ALLIES NORTHERN FLANKING MOVEMENT PROGRESSING

FRENCH ARE RESUMING OFFENSIVE

Hit German Line at Several Points.

TURNING MOVEMENT ON

Allies Still Trying to Envelop German Right.

London, Oct. 5.—Having repulsed the German attacks, presumably in the vicinity of Roye, the French, according to the official communication issued at Paris, have resumed the offensive at several points, while other positions on their left have been maintained appreciably.

The great effort of the allies to envelop the German right therefore may be said to be again in operation and it is believed that the whole French column from Roye north to Arras is moving eastward against the German positions.

It is the same operation that has been tried repeatedly for the past three weeks in an attempt to reach the German lines of communication and encircle the German army forming the right wing of force it to fall back to Belgium and Luxembourg.

Some Hard Fighting Ahead.

The Germans have had a long time in which to make their position secure, so there is a lot of hard fighting ahead for both the attacking forces and the defenses. The defensive role is now apparently being assumed by the invaders.

In the center, from the Oise to the Argonne, the two well entrenched armies still are watching each other, ready at a moment's notice to meet attacks or by advice of aerial observers to move to some point where the line is threatened. While there have been many of these movements there is little, according to the French report, to record. In other words, the situation remains virtually as it was.

Rushing Germans Northward.

In the Argonne district, where the crown prince's army attempted an advance a few days ago, there has been additional fighting with the result that the Germans have been pushed back northward. In Southern Woëvre the French are "making progress, but very slowly," against the Germans, who crossed the Meuse at St. Mihiel, but later were forced back over that river.

In Lorraine and the Vosges there is no change in the positions of the opposing armies. This probably is accounted for by the fact that the Germans have not sufficient forces to attack the almost impregnable line of fortifications, while the French are too busy elsewhere to attempt an invasion of the lost provinces. They have set themselves the task of getting the Germans out of Northeastern France and if this can be accomplished they are faced with the necessity of attacking the German positions in Alsace-Lorraine.

Of the result of the operations around the line of fortifications at Antwerp there is considerable mystery.

SITUATION IS FAVORABLE

German Official Report Covers Entire Theater of War.

London, Oct. 5.—The following German official statement was received here by the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company:

"The situation throughout the entire theater of war becomes daily more favorable to German arms."

"The Austro-Hungarian commander-in-chief, Archduke Frederick, and the heir presumptive to the Austro-Hungarian throne, Archduke Charles Francis, have inspected the greater part of the Austrian northern army and expressed themselves as well satisfied with the splendid warlike spirit among the troops."

"The Russian troops, which crossed the Carpathians and entered the district of Marmaros, have been repulsed and driven back in disorder in the direction of the Galician frontier."

CZAR NICHOLAS.

Russian Emperor Joins His Army in the Field.

CZAR ARRIVES AT FRONT

Emperor Nicholas Joins Russian Army in the Field.

Petrograd, Oct. 5.—Emperor Nicholas has arrived at army headquarters at the front, according to a dispatch here.

General Soukhomiloff, the minister of war, the court minister and the palace commandant accompanied the emperor.

Empress Alexandra and the daughters of the monarch bade him farewell at the railway station, where there were scenes of great enthusiasm, the crowd shouting, "On to Berlin!"

CALL CARPATHIANS BAR TO RUSSIANS

Austrian Military Experts Believe Little Muscovite Plans.

Vienna, Oct. 5.—Austrian military experts say the Russian attempts to invade Hungary through the Carpathian mountains are not likely to meet with much success.

There are only four or five mountain passes which would admit of the passage of the troops, it is said, and only a small number of men could proceed through them at one time.

As the march would require at least six days the question of a food supply would be serious.

Possibly later small detachments of Russians may attempt to cross the mountains, the experts say, but the Austrian troops ought to be able to repulse them easily.

It is assumed that Russia desires to invade Hungary, first, to secure the left wing of her army, which is proceeding towards the River San and Przemysl; second, to find a new field of action for her superior force of cavalry in the plains of Hungary, where that body could interfere with the training of recruits which are proceeding there and hamper railway transportation of these troops, besides obtaining large supplies of provisions.

Turning German Position.

London, Oct. 5.—A Bordeaux dispatch to the Times says: "The Germans may soon have cause to regret the success of the movement which carried them to St. Mihiel and the banks of the Meuse. While their engineers are making unavailing efforts to bridge the river again the French are working step by step toward their rear."

Special to Dispatch:

Paris, Oct. 5, 11:55 A. M.—The Northern flanking movement continues. The Allied armies, constantly reinforced, are steadily extending their lines north beyond Arras. By sheer force of numbers they are pushing the Germans' right wing steadily eastward. Every attempt of the Germans to break through in the neighborhood of Roye and Lassigny has failed.

DEFEATED GERMANS REFORM BATTLE LINE

Special to The Dispatch:

Petrograd, Oct. 5, 11:55 A. M.—The Germans, defeated along the River Niemen, have reformed just inside the Russian frontier and are endeavoring to resume the offensive. Fighting is also in progress all along the Polish frontier, where the Russians are delivering a series of attacks on the German entrenched positions.

OBLIGED TO GIVE GROUND TO GERMANS

Special to The Dispatch:

London, Oct. 5, 2:55 P. M.—The Allies were obliged to give ground at certain points on the western side of the battle line. This was announced in a statement by the French war office. The announcement is brief, containing only additional information that the battle continues with great violence to the north of the River Oise without decisive result and that there is no change on the remainder of the front.

FOUR KILLED IN BATTLE DISPLAY GREAT ACTIVITY

Vagrants and Authorities Clash in Montana Towns.

Glasgow, Mont., Oct. 5.—Four men were killed, one of them Arthur J. Giantvalley of St. Paul, in a battle between a marauding gang of industrial workers of the World and authorities at Poplar, Chelsea and Wolfe Point, Mont.

The first clash with the authorities occurred at Poplar, a station on the Great Northern railroad at the south end of the Fort Peck Indian reservation. After a sharp scrimmage, which resulted in no fatalities, the gang moved on to Chelsea, seventeen miles west.

Here the marauders attempted to force entrance to a section house and commissary car belonging to the Great Northern's engineering force. It was in resisting this attack that Giantvalley was killed. Two members of the gang also lost their lives. Leaving the bodies of their comrades the crowd continued westward to Wolfe Point and again made efforts to force food. In resisting this attempt a citizen was killed.

TAKE TROOPS FROM CENTER

German Commanders Are Protecting Right Wing.

Bordeaux, Oct. 5.—Interest in every movement of the allies as revealed in the official announcements of the war office and reports of the enemy's strategy continues intense. The rushing of reinforcements to aid their attacks seems to have little effect. The battle takes on more and more the form of a siege. Additional German forces, which are being sent to the lines of the Aisne and Oise, it is noted, are not coming from Lorraine, Belgium or Germany, but are being drawn from the army operating in Champagne province. The withdrawal of German forces from the center has caused considerable surprise in view of the extraordinary precautions taken to stop the French advance in this region, especially as the center is regarded as an apt element in the German defense.

WAR COSTS FRANCE $7,000,000 DAILY.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The war is costing France $7,000,000 a day. Minister of Finance Alexandre Ribot announced that the outlay for the first sixty days of the conflict had been $420,000,000.

Germans Bombard Village.

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch to Reuters from Amsterdam says: "The Germans bombarded the village of Brigden, near Lanaeken (in the Belgian province of Limburg, on the Meuse, three miles northwest of Maestricht). The village is now burning fiercely."

TAKE FORTS AT ANTWERP

Teutons Reduce Two Strongholds.

CLAIM FRENCH DEFEAT

Germans Assert Turning Movement Is Failure.

Berlin, Oct. 5 (via wireless to Sayville, L. I.).—The following official announcement was made:

"In the siege of Antwerp forts Wavre-St. Catherine and Dorpeld have been taken and Fort Waelhelm invested. Termonde, an important strategic point, has been occupied."

"On the western wing a new French attempt to encircle our forces has been repulsed. The French have been ejected from their positions south of Roye."

"Sorties from Toul were repulsed with heavy losses."

Other press matter officially given out says:

"The Danish paper National Tidende publishes a statement by Gottlieb von Jagow, the German foreign minister, in which he says that Great Britain had promised France assistance before German troops entered Belgium. England, in fact, had prepared for war by stirring up feeling in the different countries against Germany after the old English way of playing European continental states against each other."

Raps Britain's Naval Policy.

"A pamphlet issued by the Bremen chamber of commerce on the economical consequence of the present war indicates that Great Britain's naval policy is detrimental to neutral states exporting raw material and especially detrimental to the United States."

"The German press praises the action of the bündersrath in postponing the payment of liabilities which England has been pressing in furtherance of the policy to embarrass German trade which it has pursued since the war was begun by England. England also is suffering from this policy of trade vexation, the Daily Telegraph of London declaring that the British prohibition of sugar importations is proving harmful to several British industries."

"The well known British paper, Graphic, glorifies Belgian women who severely injured soldiers with boiling water. The Sphere publishes illustrations showing women firing at Uhlans, thus honoring the outrages of franc-tireurs."

IRELAND PROVIDES 26,000

Furnishes Number of Men for Service in British Army.

Dublin, Oct. 5.—The number of recruits for the British army obtained in Ireland amounts to about 26,000. More than 8,000 of these are from the Dublin district, 4,000 from Cork district and the remainder from Belfast.

Not all the Belfast recruits are Unionists nor are all the southern recruits Nationalists. The Belfast Nationalists say they have furnished 5,000 of the Belfast recruits, which, relative to their total population, is larger than the proportion supplied by the Unionists.

Many of the southern recruits belong to football and athletic club classes. There is not so great a rush to join the colors from the agricultural districts as was anticipated, as there is a lack of men of available age. Emigration has left Ireland with a much greater proportion of the old and very young than there is in England.

Cholera Reported in Germany.

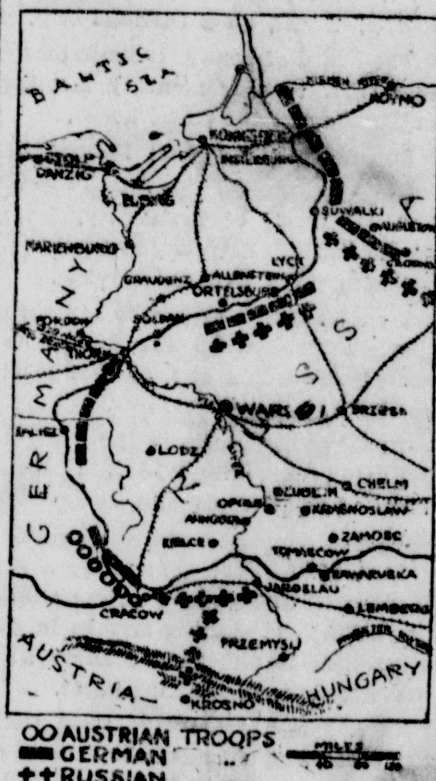

London, Oct. 5.—The North German Gazette admits the appearance of cholera in Germany as well as in Austria, says a Rome dispatch to Reuters Telegram company, but assures the public that the outbreak is well in hand.

Pope Urges Shortening War.

Rome, Oct. 5.—Pope Benedict has addressed an autograph letter to Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, again urging the emperor to use all his influence to shorten the war as much as possible.

SCENE OF BATTLE.

ISSUED BY PRESS BUREAU

British Casualty List Contains 727 Officers and Men.

London, Oct. 5.—A list of casualties in the battle of the Aisne, issued by official press bureau, includes 727 men and noncommissioned officers. Herebefore the lists of this battle have been confined to officers.

The list shows 55 killed, 330 wounded, 37 wounded and missing and 309 missing. Of the killed the Royal Field artillery, Royal Horse artillery, Queen's Bays and Dragoon Guards predominated.

An additional list of officers was issued, showing 6 killed, 8 died of wounds and 17 wounded.

JAPANESE TROOPS ARE REINFORCED

Chinese Are Not Opposing Their Westward March.

Peking, Oct. 5.—Without further diplomatic controversy the Japanese are proceeding along the railway to Tsinan. Their troops at Weihai, who occupied the station there, have been reinforced. The Chinese have not withdrawn from the line, but are not opposing the Japanese march westward.

One Chinese was killed by the Japanese when they took over the Weihai station.

The Chinese foreign office proposed to Japan that China assume control of the railway line which is owned by Germans, expel all German employees from the district and guarantee that there would be no transfer of the road until the war ended. The Japanese rejected the proposal. The Japanese have asserted that it was necessary for them to occupy the railway, as otherwise it would be used by the Germans for the transportation of war supplies to Tsingtau.

WAGES CUT AT PITTSBURG

Several Large Concerns Announce Reductions.

Pittsburg, Oct. 5.—Salaried employees of the Pittsburg Coal company, not included in the wage agreement with the United Mine Workers of America or other labor unions, suffered a reduction of 10 per cent, beginning Oct. 1. The order applies to employees receiving $100 a month or more.

The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company and its allied interests announce a reduction of 8 per cent for salaried employees. The Carnegie Steel company on Dec. 31 will terminate its existing wage agreement with its 34,000 employees.

FRENCH REPORT PROGRESS

Battle on Left Wing Continues Without Decisive Result.

Paris, Oct. 5.—The official announcement issued by the French war office reports progress in the region of Soissons, where several of the German trenches have been taken.

The battle on the left wing is in full swing without any decisive result having been attained.

MONARCHS GO TO FRONT

Three Rulers Join Firing Line.

SILENT ABOUT CRACOW

Battle Developing More Slowly Than Anticipated.

London, Oct. 5.—The battle still is raging along the East Prussian frontier and, according to the Berlin reports, the Germans have scored a victory over the Russians who had pierced their center at Augustowo.

The battle of Cracow is developing more slowly than anticipated, or at any rate nothing has come through from either side as to the happenings in that field of operations.

Three monarchs, the Russian emperor, the German emperor and the king of Belgium and the president of France are now taking part in the war or are on their way to visit the troops in the field. The German emperor has been on both western and eastern frontiers, while King Albert has been on the actual firing line ever since the war began.

The Russian emperor has left Petrograd for the front and President Poincaré, accompanied by his ministers, is well on his way from Bordeaux to give greetings to the men on the firing line.

In both Italy and Roumania a considerable difference of opinion has arisen as to what steps, if any, the governments should take regarding the war. Some are for war and others for continuation of neutrality.

If the report coming from Rome that Italian soldiers have occupied Avlona is true Italy has taken action which will almost certainly involve her. Avlona, "the Gibraltar of the Adriatic," long has been coveted by both Italy and Austria. During the war between Italy and Turkey, when Avlona belonged to Turkey, it was the scene of a daring exploit by the Italian navy under the Duke of the Abruzzi.

The jealousy of Austria was aroused immediately and as a result an agreement was reached whereby Turkey's European possessions were immune from attack. The intensity of Austrian feeling was also manifested during the Balkan war and Austro-Italian occupation of the port was talked of.

RUSSIANS CLAIM VICTORY

General Staff Says Germans Are Retreating in Disorder.

Petrograd, Oct. 5.—The official communication from the general staff headquarters issued the following dispatch:

"The battle of Augustowo ended Saturday in a victory for the Russian arms. The German defeat is complete."

"The enemy is in a most disordered retreat at this moment and in flight toward the East Prussian frontier. The valiant Russian troops are in close pursuit, the Germans abandoning in the desperate march trains, cannon and munitions, not having even time to gather up their wounded."

POINCARÉ TRAVELS IN AUTO

President of France on His Way to the Battle Front.

Bordeaux, Oct. 5.—President Poincaré, accompanied by Premier Viviani and Minister of War Alexandre Millerand, left for the battle front. The party traveled in an automobile and will be absent from the temporary capital for three or four days.

The president goes to the battle line, not to take part in the strategy as in the case of Emperor William and possibly Emperor Nicholas, but that he may congratulate the troops upon bravery that they have displayed in the long and stubborn fighting.

M. Poincaré long has been determined upon this project, but until now has been prevented from executing it either by the necessity of presiding at the daily cabinet conferences or by the wish of the military authorities, who deemed the moment unfavorable for the trip.

WOULD RECALL OFFICIALS

Portland Citizens Charge Incompetency Against Mayor.

Portland, Ore., Oct. 3.—Recall petitions bearing 10,000 signatures were filed here for the removal of the mayor and two city commissioners. Gross incompetency in the discharge of their duties is alleged.

To oppose the commissioners at a special election to be called the petitioners have named B. E. Kennedy to run against Mayor H. R. Albee, W. A. Lett against Commissioner W. L. Brewster and H. E. Abry against Commissioner R. G. Dieck.

More Than He Needed.

IF MEALS HIT BACK AND STOMACH SOURS

"Pape's Diapiesin" Ends Indigestion Gas, Dyspepsia and Stomach Misery in Five Minutes

If what you just ate is souring on your stomach or lies like a lump of lead, refusing to digest, or you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food, or have a feeling of dizziness, heartburn, fullness, nausea, bad taste in mouth and stomach headache, you can get blessed relief in five minutes.

Ask your pharmacist to show you the formula, plainly printed on these fifty-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin, then you will understand why dyspeptic troubles of all kinds must go, and why they relieve sour, out-of-order stomachs or indigestion in five minutes. "Pape's Diapiesin" is harmless; tastes like candy, though each dose will digest and prepare for assimilation into the blood all the food you eat; besides, it makes you go to the table with a healthy appetite; but, what will please you most, is that you will feel that your stomach and intestines are clean and fresh, and you will not need to resort to laxatives or liver pills for biliousness or constipation.

This city will have many "Pape's Diapiesin" cranks as some people will call them, but you will be enthusiastic about this splendid stomach preparation, too, if you ever take it for indigestion, gases, heartburn, sourness, dyspepsia, or any stomach misery.

Get some now, this minute, and rid yourself of stomach trouble and indigestion in five minutes.—Advt.

Order of Advance of a Division on the March.

TACTICS IN TIME OF BATTLE.

Careful and Elaborate Disposition of the Detached Troops to Secure the Main Body Against Surprise—The Flanks and the Rear Guard.

"The civilian in reading stories of battles and accounts of marches and attacks by an army in times of war finds many expressions that he does not clearly understand—such, for instance, as references to independent cavalry, the advance guard, advance cavalry, point and flank patrols, the support, the reserve, the main body, flank guard and rear guards—and it is reasonable to believe that there is confusion in many minds as to significance and relation of these things," said an army officer.

"Let us assume that a division is on the march, and, by the way, a division is the basis in the United States organization for the mobile army and is a unit made up of all necessary arms and services complete for independent action incident to ordinary operations.

"One or two marches ahead goes the independent cavalry, which seeks to check the enemy's cavalry and send back information as to the enemy's movements and his intentions. This cavalry is so far to the front that it could not prevent the enemy slipping in between it and the following army and could not prevent the enemy's patrol from observing the movement of the troops. Thus other precautions are taken, and one or two marches behind the independent cavalry marches the advance guard.

"First in the advance guard is the advance cavalry, commonly one squadron, which sends ahead a point or leading patrol and sends on both sides to march across country or on roads paralleling the line of march small bodies called flank patrols. All this is to clear the country of the enemy or give timely notice of his approach or his presence. Four or five miles in the rear of the leading patrol rides the advance party of the advance cavalry.

"In the rear of the advance cavalry marches the support, commonly formed of one regiment of infantry and a mounted detachment of engineers. Five hundred yards ahead of the support marches its advance party, composed of one company, and from 300 to 500 yards ahead of the advance party is its 'point' patrol, and other patrols may be sent out on the flanks or to places on the line of march where they can get good views of the country.

"About 1,000 yards behind the support marches the reserve in the following order in the United States army: One battalion of infantry, one battalion of artillery, one regiment of infantry, one company of engineers less the detachment with the support, an ambulance company and perhaps a detachment of signal troops. One or two miles behind the reserve marches the main body. If danger is suspected on either flank, flank guards are sent out, and they may be mere patrols or detachments of all arms, according to the requirements of the situation. Behind the main body marches the rear guard. Its component parts are generally as far behind the main body as those of the advance guard are in front of it, though on a night march it draws closer to the main body.

"This careful and elaborate disposition of troops on the march is to secure the division against surprise, to prevent small parties of the enemy delaying the march and, if the enemy is encountered in force, to hold him long enough for the main body to prepare for action and take up the best position offered by the country.

"The arrangement and position of the various forces as given above," concluded the military man, "are, as I said at the beginning, the usual disposition of advance troops of a division on the march, and for larger commands than a division you want to increase the strength of the independent cavalry, advance cavalry and patrols, support and reserve, and also increase the distances. In this you will see the reason for all the relatively small but frequent and sharp collisions during the early stages of a big battle."—Washington Star.

PRESIDENT'S DAY AT MUSICAL CLUB

Spirit of Friendliness, Cooperation and Enthusiasm Apparent at Saturday Meeting

MRS. BRUCE J. BROADY HOSTESS

Program of Musical Numbers by Messrs. Broady and Folsom

Judging from the lack of vacant chairs at the opening program of the Brainerd Musical club last Saturday, the twelfth year of its existence bids fair to be its best. Not only the size of the audience augured this, but also the enthusiasm and the spirit of friendliness and cooperation that was so apparent. This last quality was particularly noticeable in the cordiality with which the suggestions of the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Hansing, were received.

Mr. Hansing asked for the cooperation of the club in general and in particular in the matter of collecting funds to assist the Red Cross work during the European war, and also in the entertainment of delegates to the N. M. D. A. and the Minnesota Crop Improvement association which will meet in Brainerd in December. With the Chamber of Commerce committees in this work, and the president complied with this request by appointing the following committee: Mrs. Henry I. Cohen, Mrs. J. A. Thabes, Mrs. W. H. Gemmell, Mrs. W. C. Cobb.

According to custom, the president of the club, Mrs. Bruce Broady, was hostess on this opening day. The musical numbers were furnished by Mr. Broady and Mr. Morris Folsom, the latter a new-comer and a very decided addition to Brainerd's musical circle.

Mr. Folsom gave a group of three piano numbers of which he was happiest, perhaps, in Schuman's Nachstucke. He has the true artistic spirit, and his playing showed good tone quality, interpretive ability and sympathy, the last being particularly noticeable in his accompaniments. These are all very desirable qualities in a teacher. He was heartily recalled and responded with a gavotte from one of Bach's English Suites.

Mr. Broady sang two groups of songs and delighted his hearers by the improvement he had made since his last appearance before the club.

Mrs. Broady's remarks were characterized by brevity, simplicity and directness. She did not review the work of the past year, but summed up the club's assets as consisting of a membership of considerably more than two hundred, a Steinway Grand piano free from all encumbrance, and contracts for three of the finest concerts the club has ever offered to the public. She stated that the first of these, the Zoellner quartette (which we have the pleasure of hearing next Saturday evening) has long been considered the leading exponent of chamber music in America.

Mrs. Broady suggested, in this connection, that the club members not only support our own artists but also those of any other organization that has the courage to bring worthy musical offerings to our city.

Mrs. Broady then briefly outlined the Travel Class program for the year, stated that all members of the club would be admitted to this class, which meets with Mrs. Tom Jones, 401 N. Broadway, on every alternate Monday evening, beginning October 5th. She offered several valuable suggestions as to work that might be undertaken by the civic and social welfare committees, and recommended club membership to new-comers as a means by which they might get in touch at once with the social, artistic and civic activities of the community. She also stated that the club had purchased five dollars worth of peace stamps, which were free to any member who would use them on letters.

This report would not be complete without appreciative mention of the work of the house committee, on whom so much of the success of president's day depends. The hall was tastefully decorated, refreshments were served quietly and expeditiously, and every thing was ready on time all of which spells good management.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wieland went to Minneapolis Sunday noon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Allbright were passengers to the Twin Cities this morning.

Mrs. Ray Warren went to Brainerd Wednesday for an extended visit.—Ironton News.

Miss Carrie Minich and Mrs. French, guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Wieland, returned to St. Cloud this morning.

Mrs. M. E. Gardner has returned from a year's absence in the city, spending the winter in the south and the summer in Boston and at Orchard Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. George D. LaBar left Sunday noon for Tacoma, Wash., and will visit other western points before returning. They will be absent about ten days.

WEAR YELLOW RIBBON

This or a Yellow Bow to Serve to Identify Club Women at the Rochester Convention

The St. Cloud Journal-Press states that delegates to the annual meeting of the Minnesota Federation of Women's clubs bound for Rochester this week will do well to wear pinned to their coat laps a yellow ribbon or a bow, the mark of identification as a "club woman." From Federation headquarters in St. Cloud Mrs. Clarence L. Atwood, president, has come the information that the committees request this so as to facilitate matters on the arrival of delegates in Rochester.

Rochester has a big hospital and it also has a state institution for the insane, and the yellow bit of ribbon will at once stamp arrivals as not being destined to either of the two places. Several committees have been appointed by the local convention board in Rochester to meet the arrivals of the club woman and without a yellow sign of identification she may regret her oversight.

ZOELLNER STRING QUARTET

To Give Concert at Elks Hall Under Auspices Brainerd Musical
Club, October 10

The Zoellner String Quartet will give a concert at Elks hall Saturday evening, October 10, under the auspices of the Brainerd Musical club.

A recent critic very aptly described the work of the Zoellner quartet when he stated that, "They are the legitimate exponents of chamber music in America, because they are Americans by birth, because they play the classics with the lofty dignity required by these masterpieces, because they are not afraid to produce a novelty by an unknown writer, and furthermore, they are still young enough in years to play with keen relish and a spontaneous spirit."

The Sewing Basket

Cleveland Plain Dealer—1. Always use as fine a needle and thread as the garment will allow.

2. Use coarse thread for gathering.

3. Do not use a needle to set the gathers—use a tape needle or the head of a large pin.

4. The rule of frilling is one and a quarter the length of the edge to be trimmed.

When making tub dresses for the children of gingham, chambray, etc., make a little plain petticoat of the same goods to be worn and laundered with it. When next season's lengthening or repairing time comes, use the petticoat. The goods will be all of one color and look far better than if new pieces were used. Many a sensitive child has been made to feel very unhappy by wearing a garment where the new goods were a decided contrast to the old.

Travel Class

The Travel Class will meet this Monday evening, Oct. 5th, at the home of Mrs. T. E. Jones, 401 North Broadway. This year's work will consist of papers on "out of the way" places in America, and all members of the Musical club are welcome to come. The following papers will be read this evening: "Scenery in the Philippines," by Mrs. Jones, and "The People of the Philippines," by Miss Mary Walsh.

Church Supper

The ladies of the First Congregational church will give a supper at the church parlors on Tuesday evening, Oct. 6. The menu includes beef loaf, scalloped potatoes, baked beans, pickles, jelly, white bread, brown bread, pumpkin pie, doughnuts, cheese, coffee.

WEDDED IN WINNIPEG

Marriage of Miss Marguerite E. Knowles, formerly of Brainerd, to Mr. John E. Currie

Brainerd people are interested in the wedding of Miss Marguerite E. Knowles and Mr. John E. Currie, solemnized in Winnipeg, Canada. Miss Knowles is the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Harry W. Knowles, who at one time resided in Brainerd. In its society columns the Superior Telegram of Saturday publishes this account of the wedding:

The following is a clipping from a Winnipeg paper of the marriage of Miss Marguerite E. Knowles daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Knowles of this city and John E. Currie of Winnipeg: "A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday at 4 o'clock in Grace Methodist church, when Miss Marguerite E., daughter of Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Knowles of Superior, was united in marriage to John E. Currie, Manitoba sales manager of the E. N. Moyer company, Rev. J. Edward Hughson, B. A., pastor of the church, officiating, with Rev. Knowles taking the ring service.

"While the guests were gathering into the church, which was decorated with palms and cut flowers, Mrs. Dillabough at the organ played 'The Nuptial March,' by Voss, and through the ceremony the soft notes of 'Love's Greeting,' filled the auditorium.

"The bride, who was given away by her father, was daintily gowned in soft ivory satin, with a tunic of embroidered chiffon trimmed with pearls and silk shadow lace. Her pearl-embroidered tulle veil was caught with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of bride-roses, lilies of the valley and white heather, and an exquisitely fine handkerchief, first carried by her great-grandmother in 1812. She also wore a beautiful pearl pendant, a gift of the groom. Miss Edith Knowles, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, was charmingly gowned in baby blue crepe brocade over self shaded satin, with trimmings of French lace. She also wore a black velvet hat with white and pink rosebuds and carried pink sweet peas.

The groom was supported by his brother, W. G. Currie. Mr. Currie presented his bridesmaids with silver card cases, the groomsmen with gold cuff links, and the ushers with pearl scarf-pins.

"Mrs. Knowles, mother of the bride, wore mahogany satin with touches of baby Irish lace, hat of black velvet plumed in mahogany, and carried cream roses.

"Immediately after the ceremony Mrs. J. Edward Hughson received in honor of Mrs. Currie, at the parsonage. She was attired in pale blue crepe de chine over sunrise satin and carried pink sweet peas. The dining room was prettily decorated with pink and white carnations, the table being centered by the bride's cake, on which was the cupid which had graced the wedding cake of Mrs. Currie's mother. During the first hour Lady Aitkens and Mrs. R. D. Fletcher presided over the tea and ices, and were relieved later by Mrs. R. D. Waugh and Mrs. T. R. Ferguson. Mrs. Dick supervised in the dining room.

"Mr. and Mrs. Currie left for a brief western trip and will be at home in Winnipeg after Nov. 1. The many and charming gifts spoke eloquently of the possession of a large circle of friends by the bride and groom, among them being noticed a morocco club-bag and cut glass cream and sugar set, handsome cut glass vase, a mahogany drawing room clock, cut glass and silver salad set and pickle dishes, two very beautiful pictures and a set of sterling silver teaspoons from the ladies of the First Presbyterian church of Superior, the Rev. Dr. Knowles' congregation."

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. Values In Exhaust Steam.

A common error among plant owners is to ascribe undue economy to the heat that may be carried in water resulting from the condensation of steam. They conversely greatly underestimate the heat carried in exhaust steam. As a matter of fact, the heat in a pound of water at 212 degrees is only 180 British thermal units reckoned above the freezing point, whereas in a pound of steam at the same temperature the heat units number 1,150. Hence if this steam is condensed in a radiator it gives out 970 heat units, and the drip will contain 180 heat units.—Engineering Magazine.

Say Germans Asked Armistice.

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch to the Central News from Antwerp says: "The Germans have been repulsed. They asked for a two-hour armistice to bury their dead, but the Belgians refused to comply. The Belgians have destroyed all the bridges over the river Nethe. The Germans attempted unsuccessfully to rebuild the bridges."

Reports Russian Defeat.

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch to Reuters from Amsterdam says: "The German commander at Koenigsberg, East Prussia, has officially announced that the Russian armies in the battles of Oct. 2 and 3 lost 3,000 prisoners, eighteen big guns, many machine guns and much transport material."

Miss Weldon Bakes With Never a Failure

The free baking school in the salesroom of the D. Clark & Co. store, is the most successful and instructive ever held in Brainerd. The interest taken in it by the ladies is widespread. The baking school is a favorite topic of discussion these days. Hundreds of ladies who have attended are telling their neighbors and friends how Miss Weldon never has a failure with the good things she bakes. They cannot understand how this is possible. It is the endeavor of Miss Weldon to show you wherein it is possible and to let you know the secret of her success. Don't miss securing this information. It is valuable. Another occurrence frequently mentioned these days which is no secret, is that when a woman once uses K. C. Baking Powder she is convinced that it is the only kind that produces a result so satisfactory it leaves nothing to be desired. You will not have to apologize for failure if you use K. C. and apply the simple baking directions advocated by Miss Weldon. These lectures will continue throughout the coming week and the recipes demonstrated are all very interesting and most of them entirely new. Many recipes are to be served with sauces and for this reason it will be well to bring a fork for sampling.

PROGRAM

TUESDAY—Snow Balls with Fruit Whip, Prune Kuchen, Spanish Cake.
WEDNESDAY—Ribbon Cake, Apple Fritters, Oatmeal Fruit Cookies.
THURSDAY—Pine apple Cake, Steamed Salmon Loaf, Dutch Apple Cake.

THE COOK'S BOOK IS FREE

The Cook's Book used in the lectures contains over 80 of Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill's best recipes. It is illustrated to show how the finished baking looks and is undoubtedly the most valuable Cook's Book on Pastries, Puddings, Breads, Cakes, etc., ever given out by any manufacturer. This beautiful Cook's Book is given to any one who purchases a 25c can of K. C. Baking Powder from their grocer and brings the colored certificate found in the can to the lectures. Don't fail to secure a copy of this unusual Cook's Book.

THE HANDY BOOK

This Book is a complete set of 12 Cooking Lessons and can be secured the same as the Cook's Book, if you wish both books order a 50c can of K. C. and get both books by bringing the certificate found in the can to Miss Weldon.

Miss Weldon Bakes With Never a Failure

The free baking school in the salesroom of the D. Clark & Co. store, is the most successful and instructive ever held in Brainerd. The interest taken in it by the ladies is widespread. The baking school is a favorite topic of discussion these days. Hundreds of ladies who have attended are telling their neighbors and friends how Miss Weldon never has a failure with the good things she bakes. They cannot understand how this is possible. It is the endeavor of Miss Weldon to show you wherein it is possible and to let you know the secret of her success. Don't miss securing this information. It is valuable. Another occurrence frequently mentioned these days which is no secret, is that when a woman once uses K. C. Baking Powder she is convinced that it is the only kind that produces a result so satisfactory it leaves nothing to be desired. You will not have to apologize for failure if you use K. C. and apply the simple baking directions advocated by Miss Weldon. These lectures will continue throughout the coming week and the recipes demonstrated are all very interesting and most of them entirely new. Many recipes are to be served with sauces and for this reason it will be well to bring a fork for sampling.

PROGRAM

TUESDAY—Snow Balls with Fruit Whip, Prune Kuchen, Spanish Cake.
WEDNESDAY—Ribbon Cake, Apple Fritters, Oatmeal Fruit Cookies.
THURSDAY—Pine apple Cake, Steamed Salmon Loaf, Dutch Apple Cake.

THE COOK'S BOOK IS FREE

The Cook's Book used in the lectures contains over 80 of Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill's best recipes. It is illustrated to show how the finished baking looks and is undoubtedly the most valuable Cook's Book on Pastries, Puddings, Breads, Cakes, etc., ever given out by any manufacturer. This beautiful Cook's Book is given to any one who purchases a 25c can of K. C. Baking Powder from their grocer and brings the colored certificate found in the can to the lectures. Don't fail to secure a copy of this unusual Cook's Book.

THE HANDY BOOK

This Book is a complete set of 12 Cooking Lessons and can be secured the same as the Cook's Book, if you wish both books order a 50c can of K. C. and get both books by bringing the certificate found in the can to Miss Weldon.

The state fair profits this year are about $12,000, the receipts being about $13,000 more than in 1913.

Herbert Johnson, of St. Paul, has filed his petition with 2,067 names with the secretary of state as the industrial labor party candidate for governor.

The best remedy for the high cost of living ever discovered is to work daytime and sleep nights, is the advice of Frank Eddy in the Sauk Center Herald, and Frank is a well posted man.

Announcement is made that the enforcement of the Indian treaty regulations regarding the sale of liquor has been suspended "for a year." The qualification that it is to be for a year may mean that warning is given to those in the territory affected with plenty of time to prepare for the lid enforcement at the expiration of that time. A year isn't a long time but if it means that the treaty is to be enforced it is of sufficient length for the purpose intended.

The United States could make itself independent of the rest of the world for its sugar supply if two million acres were planted to beets, and although this seems a large area a list of 19 states adapted to the growing of beets is given in the bulletin published by the agricultural department of the government containing 278,000,000 acres of improved lands in which it would be necessary for but one farmer in four to plant a three acre tract to enable this country to get away from the foreign sugar problem entirely.

Parties having friends in any of the war stricken countries of Europe who wish to correspond with them will find that a message written on a postcard has the best chance of reaching its destination. All mail is censored and letters going to the offices of those countries may be opened to ascertain whether they contain anything that might prove of a disadvantage to their country's army. A message on a post card is easily read and started on its way while a sealed letter is uncertain of going farther than the office of distribution first reached.

St. Cloud people will make an attempt to block the efforts of promoters to unload on the people of that city stock in enterprises that have little or no commercial value, and the commercial club is considering appointing a committee to pass on all schemes presented to citizens through agents. Of course this will not prevent any man from becoming victimized by a fake promoter in the sale of worthless stock but it will give those who care for information some idea as to the enterprise they are asked to invest their money in. The idea is a good one and could well be copied in this city, as many can attest. Hundreds of thousands of dollars have been invested by Brainerd people in various enterprises that have finally turned out bad or were bad at the time of investment, and a little investigation by a commercial body might have saved the people from being victimized. Enterprises that are legitimate will welcome all the light possible on their transactions and the standing of the business represented and those that would object to it should be passed up without further consideration.

DEVELOPMENTS OF WEEK ON RANGE

Chester D. Tripp Gives Figures on Ore Production of Rogers, Brown Ore Co. Properties

THE BRAINERD-GUYUNA IS BUSY

Wilcox Mine at Woodrow Has its Shaft Down to the First Level, 200 Feet From Surface

Chester D. Tripp, of the Rogers, Brown Ore Co., in speaking of this year's production of the Rogers, Brown Ore Co. properties on the Guyuna range, said that the Kennedy mine at Guyuna will have shipped this season about 200,000 tons and the Armour No. 2 north of Ironton and Crosby 275,000 tons. The Armour No. 1 was silent this year, there still being a part of last year's stockpile at the mine.

The Thompson pit mine of the Inland Steel Co. is expected to ship close to 100,000 tons this season. The Rowe has also shipped about this amount. Two shovels are working at the Thompson pit and one at the Rowe pit mine of the Pittsburgh Steel Ore Co. at Riverton. The Pennington pit mine west of Ironton has closed down for the winter.

The Cuyuna-Mille Lacs mine and the Cuyuna-Duluth mine, subsidiaries of the American Manganese Manufacturing Co., are shipping steadily and since the installation of the large new air compressor at the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs production will increase correspondingly there. The Cuyuna-Mille Lacs is at present averaging about 10 cars daily and the Cuyuna-Duluth 5 cars.

The work at the Brainerd-Cuyuna mine in the city of Brainerd is progressing rapidly, the shaft now having reached a depth of 35 feet, and is going down at the rate of about 2 feet per day. At this rate there is every probability that ledge will be reached by the end of November. The work is being carried on under the direction of D. C. Peacock, consulting engineer, who has been so successful in leading the shaft at the Wilcox mine at Woodrow.

The officers of the Brainerd-Cuyuna Mining Co. are President F. A. Farrar of Brainerd, vice president Henry Nelson, secretary-treasurer Edmond Ingalls, manager Charles C. Jones, all of Duluth. Supt. John O. Martin has been succeeded by Supt. Andrew Johnson.

The Cuyuna-Sultana iron company is actively engaged in sinking their second shaft on the Campbell forty. About thirty acres of this forty is underlaid with a deposit of manganese ore and upwards of twenty million tons have been proven by the two drilling outfits which have been working on that property for the last year. The Sultana is surrounded on three sides by proven ore bodies: Section 30 property on the north, the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs on the west and the Cuyuna Iron & Manganese Ore Co. property on the south, which the Jones & Laughlin people now control under option. The company expects to strip a portion of their property the coming winter and should be in a position to ship a large tonnage next season. It is generally conceded by those in a position to judge that the Sultana is the second largest proven ore body on the Cuyuna range. Captain Albert Kito, formerly of the Soudan mine of Tower, is in active charge of the work, under the direction of A. R. McGuire, mining engineer.

The Cuyuna Central iron company is reported to have struck manganese ore running as high as 43.62 per cent. Iron has also been found running as high as 64 and 66 per cent. Twenty-eight holes are in ore at their property which includes the northwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section 27, township 47, range 29, known as the Hunter estate and the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter in the same section, known as the King property. King is an Iowa man who leased it to the Grover Iron Co., and they in turn to the Cuyuna Central iron company. Five drills are at work under the supervision of William Rock, who has been very successful in locating ore. Instances are known where Rock has taken land turned down by others, has found the ore body and traced up big deposits.

The findings of the Minnesota State Tax commission are awaited with interest. It is the first time the range has been reviewed by the tax commission, the range in its development period not being taxed heavily.

The shaft at the Wilcox mine of the Canadian-Cuyuna Ore Co. at Woodrow is now finished to the first level, 200 feet from surface, and the water sump 22 feet below the first level is also finished. Timber for the station is now on the ground and is being used as fast as the rock work can be done. The station will be completed October 15. The cross cut will be driven to the ore while the station is being put in and should reach the ore by the end of the present month. The big timbers for the head frame and ore pockets are now on the ground and are being framed. The head frame and shaft house are to be finished by November 15.

The new hoist, which was built for the Wilcox mine by the Vulcan Iron Works of Wilkes Barre, Pennsylvania has been shipped and is expected to reach the mine October 10. The foundation for this hoist is finished and ready to receive the machinery. A new house for the manager has been built near the works and this with the miners "dry," or change house, just being finished up, completes all the mine buildings required at the Wilcox.

So far this mine has made very little water and they are only pumping about 200 gallons per minute at the present time. This mine is to be pumped by electric pumps and is wired up for that purpose. The electric pump has been delivered and will be put into the mine as soon as the station is finished.

A. W. Mackay, secretary and treasurer of the Paterson Construction company, goes east shortly. He has also been the accountant and paymaster at the mine. Werner Hemstead, Jr., of Brainerd, has assumed a position as bookkeeper at the mine.

Gordon L. Michael has been in Brainerd from the Canadian Soo for several days this week, the guest of R. W. Seelye. Mr. Michael is a mining man of many years' experience and his trip to Brainerd has been an interesting one to him in that respect, as he has found many new conditions on the Cuyuna range and he was particularly pleased at the showing made by the Wilcox mine. At the Canadian Soo things are at a standstill owing to the European war. Work on a big waterworks project, dry dock, etc., has stopped.

Directors of the Cuyuna Consolidated iron company met in Ironton and elected as officers for the ensuing year President P. J. Long, secretary Attorney D. B. McAlpine and treasurer J. E. Mattison.

Henry J. Kruse, of Crosby, has returned from a trip to the Vermilion and Gogebic ranges where he reported on some properties for eastern people.

Furnaces of the American Manganese Manufacturing Co. are expected to be started up early in October for the manufacture of ferro-manganese from their Cuyuna range ores. Now that Russia has prohibited exportation of its own manganese ores, the supply will be diminished in the United States and there will be a great market for the home product of the Cuyuna iron range. Over 200 cars of manganese ore are now on their way to the Dumbur furnaces of the corporation, and it is planned to ship as much ore as possible before navigation closes. The company has at present more orders for ferro-manganese than it can fill immediately and the furnace capacity as well as mine production, it is highly probable, will be largely increased. Last month the Cuyuna-Mille Lacs and Cuyuna-Duluth mines, subsidiaries of the American Manganese Manufacturing Co., disbursed in wages over $10,000, the payroll of the Cuyuna-Duluth being $4000. Visiting the range last week were President E. E. Marshall, of the company, and Directors William A. Powell and William Selfridge, all of Philadelphia.

At Barrows the drill of the Seaford Exploration company in section 9 is now on the south side of the property. The drill of the Duluth Diamond Drill company in section 10 is now within a few feet of the village limits and is striking very good ore, it is reported. The drills in section 16 on the property of the Barrows Mining company are down 200 feet in the present hole and have better ore in this hole than in hole No. A-1 and also closer to the surface.

There has been recorded the mining lease of Leon E. Lum, of Duluth, to the June Lake Iron Co., dated December 9, 1911, and covering property consisting of lot 3 and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 9, township 46, range 29, being 70.90 acres. The royalty specified is 25 cents a ton, of which 21 1/4 cents goes to Mr. Lum and 3 3/4 cents to Michael F. Kalmbach, or those interested with him according to a contract on file. The tonnage specified is 3,000 tons the first year, 10,000 tons for each of the second and third years, 20,000 tons for each of the fourth and fifth years, 40,000 tons the sixth and each succeeding year of the 50 year term covered by the lease.

An agreement and consent is also on file that stripping and removal of the surface is permitted. The iron mined and shipped shall pay the royalty as designated. Ore which is not merchantable may be treated on lands described in the lease or in the vicinity of the property. Royalty shall be paid on the concentrates shipped. The agreement was signed by the June Lake Iron Co. through its president, Gordon H. Winsor and secretary E. L. Johnson and by the others interested including Chester A. Congdon, G. G. Hartley, Michael F. Kalmbach, William Harrison, W. E. Hunt, George H. Crosby and the Onondago Iron Co., and Leon E. Lum.

One of the large transfers of the week was that of Senator Joseph C. Wood and F. B. Lynch, of St. Paul, to the Gopher Iron Co., the consideration being $30,000 and the property the west half of the southeast quarter of section 19, township 46, range 29, subject to the provisions of a mineral lease between the parties named.

John McManus has assigned an option dated May 11, 1914, executed by Adolph J. Irwick and giving McManus the right to drill, explore and purchase the northeast quarter of the northeast quarter of section 16, township 46, range 28, consideration being $3,000, to Walter B. Jordan, Jr., trustee, of Minneapolis.

A modification of release and the mining lease was filed in which Tom Pederson, of Brainerd, is owner and Gust H. Sylow, of Cuyuna, lessee, covering the southeast quarter of section 2, township 45, range 30 and the northwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section 1, township 45, range 30. The lease was for three years from July 11, 1912.

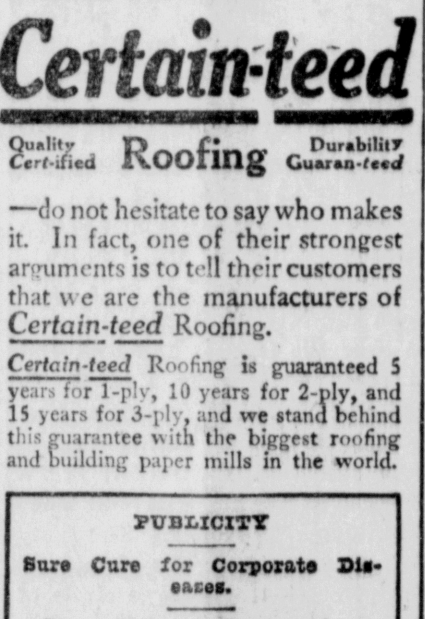

The Duluth-Brainerd Mining Co. is reported to be awaiting the arrival of a large boiler.

PUBLICITY
Sure Cure for Corporate Disasters.
The startling disclosures of corporate mismanagement in the last ten years have brought about a general feeling that publicity of corporate affairs is both necessary and desirable for the future well-being of all corporations. This publicity may be affected in many ways and should give the public as well as the stockholders such information as will eliminate all possible chance for corruption and mismanagement.
In the past, managers of some corporations have operated their business in a more or less discreet fashion, persistently refusing to make their acts known to the public or even to their stockholders. In most instances if these operations had been made public at the time, many of the firms from which they are now suffering would not have occurred, and millions of dollars of investment would have been saved.
The effect of corporate mismanagement is greatly magnified, however, when its discovery comes too late for governmental investigation. Generally speaking, if the facts were voluntarily made public, or if they were made known through established methods of publicity, in the regular course of business, the mismanagement of the corporation would never occur or it could be remedied immediately and the bad effect of it would be comparatively small.
And so it is with many houses of business in the field of commerce and manufacture. They are afraid of publicity—afraid to have their factories examined and to let purchasers verify statements or facts concerning the goods. The only conclusion to be reached in such cases is that the manufacturer has something to conceal, which if discovered, would not bear out his assertions.
Publicity in relation to all business matters is the best cure for their evils, just as light and air are the germs of disease.

what extent pending business will develop into orders is still very uncertain. Definite information as to much of this business is not available. Information comes to an Ohio manufacturer direct from London that the British government will buy over 100,000 tons of sheets for barracks for winter quarters and that all of these sheets will be required during the next three months. It is probable that English mills will be able to meet the requirements of the government, but that they will not be able to take care of their ordinary trade, some of which will come to the United States. Inquiries for 50,000 steel barrels for export are still pending.

Remarkable dullness in pig iron continues and it seems probable that production this month will be still further reduced.

A fairly large fleet of ore carriers will go into winter quarters in October, and the ore season on the lakes will probably make a new record for early closing.

TO INCREASE BIRTH RATE.

British Fighters Urged to Marry Before Going to War.

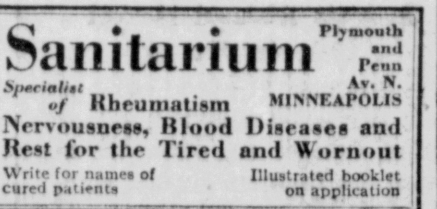

Realization of the necessity of a high birth rate to offset the deaths due to the war has led to a movement in England to reduce marriage fees and to encourage soldiers and sailors to take wives before leaving for the front.

The archbishop of Canterbury has addressed an open letter on the subject to a London paper, and he has likewise sent a strong letter to all the bishops urging them to reduce the marriage license fees so that soldiers and sailors summoned to active service may marry before leaving home. The marriage fees total $10, which includes $2.50 in stamp duty to the government. The archbishop has requested the government to waive the payment of this duty in the case of recruits.

Many dioceses already have lowered the license fee to $2.50, and the clergymen are waiving their right to personal fees.

The wholesale encouragement of marriages on the part of the soldiers and sailors of Germany, Austria and France has attracted much attention in England and probably inspired the archbishop's action.

INDIAN TREATY NOT ENFORCED

Operation of the "Lid" Would Have Closed Saloons Over a Large Section of the State

NO LID ORDER FOR A YEAR

Congressman Miller Informs His Constituents that the Order Has Been Postponed

Saloons located in the much mooted "dry" territory covered by the Indian treaty preventing the sale of liquor in such portions of northern Minnesota will not be closed this fall, as was anticipated earlier in the year.

Mayor Victor Powers of Hibbing, has been informed by Congressman Miller that the interior department has issued an order suspending the action of the "dry" provisions for one year, when the treaty was supposed to become effective. A good share of the Mesaba range and territory as far west as Crookston would have been affected, and more than 500 saloons in the treaty territory would have been put out of business. The matter has been bitterly fought before the department, and petitions signed by residents in the Indian territory asking that the treaty provisions be observed were in evidence as well as the protests made against its enforcement.

A committee consisting of men from the various sections of the state affected had been selected to go to Washington to enter a formal protest before the department of the interior, and photographs of the properties in which saloons are now operated and which would be closed under the provisions had already been forwarded.

Whether or not another effort will be made to have the treaty become operative at the end of the year is not known, but it is quite possible that the whole matter of its enforcement has been suspended indefinitely. Those who favored the treaty declare that the matter will not be dropped and that a campaign will begin at once to have it reopened.

In the meantime the men engaged in the liquor business in the northern part of the state are resting easier as a year's lease of business life is assured them. As a business proposition the matter should be decided one way or another and settled for all time.

At the Columbia

Patrons of this popular play house were treated to an exceptional photo play program last night, "The Double Life," and it was all that could be desired if one were looking for an exciting drama. Every detail was carefully worked out to the joy of every spectator. "Swedie" and his comedy was great. This comedian could easily be termed "The Funny Man of all the Movies." We have never seen a better one. The program in its entirety again this evening. Tomorrow will start the new week and pictures that will bring forth praise from young and old will hold full sway. "The Face in the Crowd" portrays the life of a great detective. His experiences number in the hundreds. Mac McDermott appears in the fifth of his series entitled "The Light on the Wall." Mary Pickford who comes on Thursday in "What the Daisy Said," is said to be the best one-reel story in which she ever appeared. The management desires every "Mary" fan to be on hand. A treat is promised.

RED CROSS DAY

Chamber of Commerce to Designate a Day for the Collection of Funds for Red Cross

At a recent meeting of the public affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce, plans were discussed and steps taken for designating one day of the month as RED CROSS DAY. Small wooden boxes are to be painted with large red crosses symbolical of the day, which will be distributed about the city and left in charge of business men for the collection of funds for the relief of European war sufferers. Braierd citizens are to be called upon to give to the cause as liberally as circumstances will allow in an effort to place Braierd among other cities who have responded. Minnesota with its abundance should give as generously as any other state in the Union. There is every indication that the United States, being neutral and enjoying all the benefits of peace, will not suffer any great material loss, because of the momentous struggle now being waged in Europe, and it is fitting that this city manifest its sympathy and contribute from its means for the amelioration of the suffering which is faced by the millions of people in the countries now at war.

In addition to the collection to be made by the aid of the boxes, arrangements are to be made with moving picture theatres of the city to turn over, on a night to be designated later, a percentage of all receipts from one performance. An effort will be made to procure appropriate pictures while special musical programs are to be rendered.

Proposed Tonnage Tax

Editors Dispatch:

An attempt will be made at the next session of the legislature to impose a tonnage tax on iron ore when mined. This was passed once and vetoed by Gov. J. A. Johnson. The scheme is all wrong. Property should be taxed in and for the benefit of the county in which it is located. There are 86 counties in this state, and only three of them so far, St. Louis, Itasca and Crow Wing, have produced iron ore. The proposition is to levy a special tax on all iron ore when mined. This tax is not paid to the county in which the mine is located but to the state, and by the state distributed among all the counties of the state. This would be a fine thing for the 83 counties which have no iron mines, but why should this property be taxed for the benefit of these other 83 counties? We should have the taxes on all the property within the county. Let us see how this proposed scheme would work. Crow Wing county, for example, has a rich mine of ore on its poor farm, which, it is estimated, will produce two million tons of rich ore. An extra tax of five cents a ton would compel the county to pay to the state for the benefit of these other counties about fifty thousand dollars. This would be not only an unjust burden but might prevent the mining of this ore entirely. So it would be with all other mining properties of the state. Do we want this? Of course not. As I have said, let us have the benefit of all the taxes on this kind of property.

SALOON ROBBED AT JENKINS SATURDAY

Charles Mason Loses $38.45 Cash, a $5 Check and an Automatic Revolver at Noon Hour

ONE ARREST MADE AT PEQUOT

J. W. Brown, Charged With Grand Larceny in Second Degree, in Court This Morning

At the noon hour Saturday sneak thieves entered the saloon of Charles Mason at Jenkins by removing the panel of a door and broke open the cash register, extracting $38.45 cash, a $5 check and an automatic revolver. Mason has no bartender and was busy eating his lunch at his home. When he returned twenty minutes later he discovered the robbery. Two transients who had been about town several days were suspected and were not in town after the crime.

In opening the cash register, one of the robbers injured his hand and there was blood on the machine. At Pequot Constable Chris Knudson arrested a man, one J. W. Brown, who it is alleged, had his hand tied and had a fresh cut on the hand. It is also alleged that Brown paid for his meal at the restaurant with a Canadian dollar bill.

Mason stated that among the cash taken from his cash register was a Canadian one dollar bill.

Brown was taken to Braierd by Deputy Sheriff Claus A. Theorin and this morning the case came up in the municipal court. Brown was charged with grand larceny in the second degree. He was placed under $500 bail and the case continued to two o'clock Monday afternoon, October 12.

In the meantime the sheriff's office is busy endeavoring to locate the second man alleged to have been implicated in the robbery. Mason is in town and giving all possible assistance to find the robbers. Descriptions of the men have been wired about the country.

HARD NAME GIVEN BURDETS

Albert Lea Thief Believed to Have Operated at Braierd, Robbing School House

Under date of Oct. 3, Albert Lea, Minn., the Minneapolis Journal says that one of the watches and a pair of nose glasses in the possession of Joseph Frederick Burdets, who robbed an Albert Lea school building and was sentenced to state's prison, are thought to be part of the loot taken at the robbing of the public schools of Braierd recently.

Letters from Supt. W. C. Cobb and Miss Laura V. Haship, teacher in the grade schools of Braierd, to Supt. C. C. Baker describe the articles perfectly. The Braierd school also lost over $40 in cash besides knives and fountain pens. The articles held here will be sent to Braierd for identification. Burdets is thought to be a professional crook, making the robbing of schools and libraries a specialty.

BRAINERD WINS 92 TO 0

Akeley High School Football Team Crushed to Earth on Saturday Afternoon

The opening football game of the season resulted in an overwhelming victory for the Braierd high school over their rivals from Akeley by the score of 92 to 0. The game was very much one-sided and was Braierd's game from the first whistle. The teams were evenly matched as regards to weight but the local team manifested more speed and aggressiveness, superior coaching and brain work, especially so in the end running.

The interference in this style of play was nearly perfect, the man with the ball always being assisted by three, four and sometimes five of his team-mates, and this work alone enabled Braierd to pile up an enormous score. The line showed up a stone-wall defense, the back-field and ends played fast, tricky football and Capt. Trent picked out his plays with remarkable precision when and where they would do the most good.

Norquist played a brilliant game at center, passing the ball accurately and well and outplayed his man, Mahlum and Hagberg also played hard, snappy games at the guard positions and Warner and Eckholm were mountains of strength at tackle. Fall and Falconer played the guards in the third quarter and showed up well for their first game with the team. The entire line charged hard and well and outplayed their opponents.

Both Riese and Blake's playing showed to advantage and Molstad, who relieved Blake in the third quarter, also showed some excellent work on his end. Riese, especially, played a fine game, at one time intercepting a forward pass and making a fine run through a broken field for a touchdown. Blake's kicking was also a feature and his punting out for a goal-try was a fine piece of work.

The entire back-field showed up to good advantage in their particular lines. Walt Koop never played better, both on the offensive and defensive, than he did Saturday. He scored three touchdowns in the first half, two of them on spectacular end runs and one on a forward pass.

Carlson scored four touchdowns, two on fine end runs, one on a forward pass and scored the last touchdown on a remarkable plunge off tackle, assisted by some great interference. Carlson's footwork is a facsimile of his brother Harry's work in former years when Harry was numbered among Braierd high's star performers on the gridiron.

Geo. Day, although badly handicapped by an injured foot, hurt in practice, never looked better and his fierce charging was too much for Akeley. He scored five touchdowns, three on hard smashing plunges off tackle and two on end runs.

Capt. Trent never played better football and his generalship was faultless. He drove his team hard, fairly fast and played well throughout the game. His forward passing, while too high, was very well placed, and in one instance his pass to Carlson, which resulted in a touchdown, was a great piece of work.

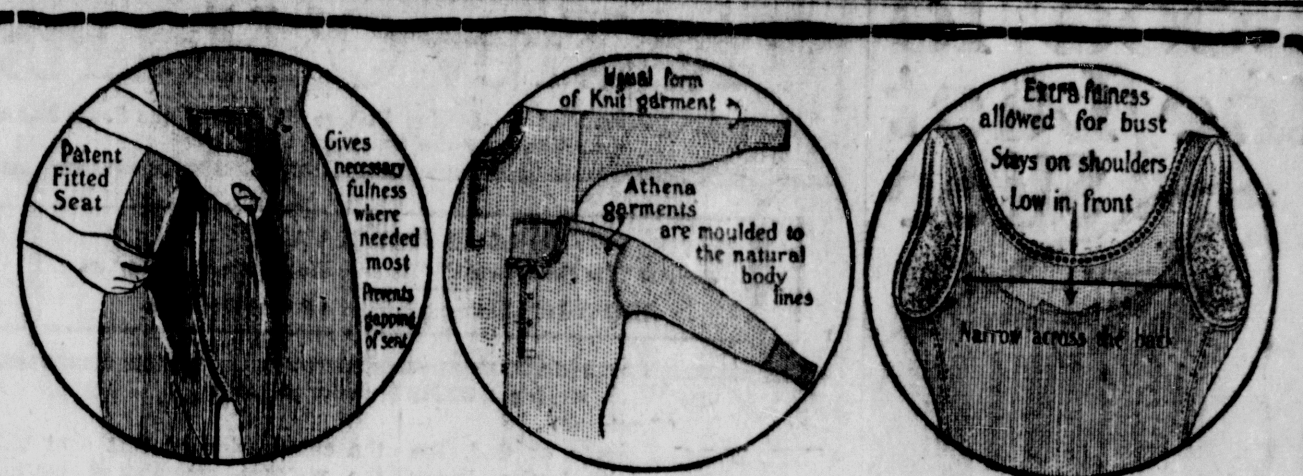

Next Saturday Braierd plays St. Cloud at St. Cloud and this is expected to be one of the hardest battles of the year. St. Cloud always puts out a fast team and this year's squad is as fast as in former years. The team will have to play their best to win, however, if Braierd plays as she did Saturday against Akeley, St. Cloud will have her hands full.

It is hoped that a good crowd will accompany the team and give them the best support possible. The crowd at the Akeley game was not very large, the majority being high school students. With the fine team that Braierd high has on the field this season, every student and football fan in Braierd should patronize the games and assist in every way possible to make the season a success from every standpoint. Considerable money was lost by undertaking to bring Akeley here and as there are several home games scheduled which puts the management to considerable expense, it is hoped that large crowds will hereafter be in attendance.

The Braierd team made a nifty appearance on the field in their new football uniforms and it was an easy matter, at all times to distinguish the home team from their opponents, the suits being presented them by the Braierd Chamber of Commerce. The new slogan is "On to St. Cloud and a Championship."

Every woman, or at least almost every woman, has, at one time or another of her life, charge of the personal health of somebody, whether child or invalid—in other words, every woman is a nurse. INDIAN TREATY NOT ENFORCED

Operation of the "Lid" Would Have Closed Saloons Over a Large Section of the State

NO LID ORDER FOR A YEAR

Congressman Miller Informs His Constituents that the Order Has Been Postponed

Saloons located in the much mooted "dry" territory covered by the Indian treaty preventing the sale of liquor in such portions of northern Minnesota will not be closed this fall, as was anticipated earlier in the year.

Mayor Victor Powers of Hibbing, has been informed by Congressman Miller that the interior department has issued an order suspending the action of the "dry" provisions for one year, when the treaty was supposed to become effective. A good share of the Mesaba range and territory as far west as Crookston would have been affected, and more than 500 saloons in the treaty territory would have been put out of business. The matter has been bitterly fought before the department, and petitions signed by residents in the Indian territory asking that the treaty provisions be observed were in evidence as well as the protests made against its enforcement.

A committee consisting of men from the various sections of the state affected had been selected to go to Washington to enter a formal protest before the department of the interior, and photographs of the properties in which saloons are now operated and which would be closed under the provisions had already been forwarded.

Whether or not another effort will be made to have the treaty become operative at the end of the year is not known, but it is quite possible that the whole matter of its enforcement has been suspended indefinitely. Those who favored the treaty declare that the matter will not be dropped and that a campaign will begin at once to have it reopened.

In the meantime the men engaged in the liquor business in the northern part of the state are resting easier as a year's lease of business life is assured them. As a business proposition the matter should be decided one way or another and settled for all time.

At the Columbia

Patrons of this popular play house were treated to an exceptional photo play program last night, "The Double Life," and it was all that could be desired if one were looking for an exciting drama. Every detail was carefully worked out to the joy of every spectator. "Swedie" and his comedy was great. This comedian could easily be termed "The Funny Man of all the Movies." We have never seen a better one. The program in its entirety again this evening. Tomorrow will start the new week and pictures that will bring forth praise from young and old will hold full sway. "The Pace in the Crowd" portrays the life of a great detective. His experiences number in the hundreds. Mac McDermott appears in the fifth of his series entitled "The Light on the Wall." Mary Pickford who comes on Thursday in "What the Daisy Said," is said to be the best one-reel story in which she ever appeared. The management desires every "Mary" fan to be on hand. A treat is promised.

RED CROSS DAY

At a recent meeting of the public affairs committee of the Chamber of Commerce, plans were discussed and steps taken for designating one day of the month as RED CROSS DAY. Small wooden boxes are to be painted with large red crosses symbolical of the day, which will be distributed about the city and left in charge of business men for the collection of funds for the relief of European war sufferers. Braierd citizens are to be called upon to give to the cause as liberally as circumstances will allow in an effort to place Braierd among other cities who have responded. Minnesota with its abundance should give as generously as any other state in the Union. There is every indication that the United States, being neutral and enjoying all the benefits of peace, will not suffer any great material loss, because of the momentous struggle now being waged in Europe, and it is fitting that this city manifest its sympathy and contribute from its means for the amelioration of the suffering which is faced by the millions of people in the countries now at war.

In addition to the collection to be made by the aid of the boxes, arrangements are to be made with moving picture theatres of the city to turn over, on a night to be designated later, a percentage of all receipts from one performance. An effort will be made to procure appropriate pictures while special musical programs are to be rendered.

Proposed Tonnage Tax

Editors Dispatch:
An attempt will be made at the next session of the legislature to impose a tonnage tax on iron ore when mined. This was passed once and vetoed by Gov. J. A. Johnson. The scheme is all wrong. Property should be taxed in and for the benefit of the county in which it is located. There are 56 counties in this state, and only three of them so far, St. Louis, Itasca and Crow Wing, have produced iron ore. The proposition is to levy a special tax on all iron ore when mined. This tax is not paid to the county in which the mine is located but to the state, and by the state distributed among all the counties of the state. This would be a fine thing for the 83 counties which have no iron mines, but why should this property be taxed for the benefit of these other 83 counties? We should have the taxes on all the property within the county. Let us see how this proposed scheme would work. Crow Wing county, for example, has a rich mine of ore on its poor farm, which, it is estimated, will produce two million tons of rich ore. An extra tax of five cents a ton would compel the county to pay to the state for the benefit of these other counties about fifty thousand dollars. This would be not only an unjust burden but might prevent the mining of this ore entirely. So it would be with all other mining properties of the state. Do we want this? Of course not. As I have said, let us have the benefit of all the taxes on this kind of property.

SALOON ROBBED AT JENKINS SATURDAY

Charles Mason Loses $38.45 Cash, a $5 Check and an Automatic Revolver at Noon Hour

ONE ARREST MADE AT PEQUOT

J. W. Brown, Charged With Grand Larceny in Second Degree, in Court This Morning

At the noon hour Saturday sneak thieves entered the saloon of Charles Mason at Jenkins by removing the panel of a door and broke open the cash register, extracting $38.45 cash, a $5 check and an automatic revolver. Mason has no bartender and was busy eating his lunch at his home. When he returned twenty minutes later he discovered the robbery. Two transients who had been about town several days were suspected and were not in town after the crime.

In opening the cash register, one of the robbers injured his hand and there was blood on the machine. At Pequot Constable Chris Knudson arrested a man, one J. W. Brown, who it is alleged, had his hand tied and had a fresh cut on the hand. It is also alleged that Brown paid for his meal at the restaurant with a Canadian dollar bill.

Mason stated that among the cash taken from his cash register was a Canadian one dollar bill.

Brown was taken to Braierd by Deputy Sheriff Claus A. Theorin and this morning the case came up in the municipal court. Brown was charged with grand larceny in the second degree. He was placed under $500 bail and the case continued to two o'clock Monday afternoon, October 12.

In the meantime the sheriff's office is busy endeavoring to locate the second man alleged to have been implicated in the robbery. Mason is in town and giving all possible assistance to find the robbers. Descriptions of the men have been wired about the country.

- 1-A saving of one-third in fuel over any lower draft stove of the same size, with soft coal, slack or lignite.
- 2-That Cole's Hot Blast will use less hard coal for heating a given space than any base burner made with the same size fire pot.
- 3-That the rooms can be heated from one to two hours each morning with the soft coal or hard coal put in the stove the evening before.
- 4-That the stove will hold fire with soft coal from Saturday night until Monday morning.
- 5-A uniform heat day and night, with soft coal, hard coal or lignite.
- 6-That every stove will remain absolutely air-tight as long as used.
- 7-That the feed-door is and will remain smoke and dust-proof.
- 8-That the Anti-Puffing Draft will prevent puffing.

All we ask is that the stove shall be operated according to directions and connected with a good flue.

Then, like the wrath of God, the steamship overwhelmed the lesser ship; its bow seemed to slice through the schooner as a knife through cheese. And the two halves were fairly driven under water by the frightful force of the blow.

Thunders deafening him, Alan was hurled bodily through the air fully twenty feet.

When he came up he struck out at random, blindly tormented by the vision of Rose caught in the suck of that gigantic wheel, drawn under, crushed and mangled by the propeller of the vast black hulk whose flank was sliding past, like the face of a cliff, ten yards behind his shoulders.

Aware of several dark objects dotting the surface within a radius of several yards, he swam for the nearest; the head was a woman's, the face turned toward him, the face of Rose.

He gasped wildly: "Keep cool! Don't struggle! Put one hand on my shoulder and—"

What happened then was never quite clear to him; he only knew that he was forced to fight for his very life—that the woman, as soon as he came within reach, flung herself upon him like some maddened animal, clutching his throat, winding her limbs round his, dragging him down and down.

Primitive instinct alone saved him. He remembered later, most vaguely the culmination of that duel beneath the waters—remembered freeing an arm, drawing it back, delivering a blow from his shoulder, with all his strength, finding himself free, struggling back to the air.

Then a boathook caught the back of his shirt and dragged him for some distance, until two strong hands caught him beneath the armpits and held his head above the water.

He looked up wittily into the face of Barcus, and, still bewildered, struggled feebly.

The other's voice brought him back to his senses. "Easy, old top! Take it easy! You're all right now—rest a minute, then help me get you aboard."

He obeyed, controlling his panic as best he might; and presently, with considerable assistance from Barcus, contrived to scramble in over the gunwales of a boat which proved to be the stolen lifeboat.

Aside from Barcus and himself it held one other person only—the woman he loved, crumpled up and unconscious in the bow.

He strove to rise and go to her, to make sure that still she lived. Barcus restrained and quieted him.

"There! Easy, I say! She's all right—fainted—that's all! She and I took the water in practically the same spot, and luck threw this blessed boat my way within half a dozen strokes. No trouble at all—in a manner of speaking!"

"But the steamer—" "Why fret about her? At the pace she was making she couldn't have stopped within half a mile. We'll be all right now—with power to fetch us to land."

"But the others—Judith!" Alan sat up and leaned over the gunwale, searching an oily, leaden expanse spotted only with a few splinters and bits of wreckage. "I left her out there—unconscious—she'll drown, I tell you!"

"And I'll tell you something!" said Mr. Barcus severely. "You'll be quiet and shut up or I'll dent your dome with the shaft of an oar. Let her drown—and a good job, I say! Don't you know the meaning of 'enough'? Merciful heavens, man, you're the most insatiable glutton for punishment ever!"

But Alan wasn't listening. His face was as lightless as the waters that swam beneath his lack-luster gaze. There was a horror in his heart that numbed even the sense of relief, of deliverance, that penetrated his being like a shock of mortal pain.

Dead! Judith dead! Back there, in the fog and the cold . . . dead by his hand!

Rosabelle's "Favah."

Never was there a blacker daughter of Africa than was Rosabelle Jackson when, as a girl of but thirteen years, she was taken into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Deene, a childless couple who purposed training Rosabelle into a maid of all work. This they succeeded in doing, and so many admirable traits of character were developed in Rosabelle that they became much attached to the girl, and her affection for them was pronounced. One day when she was nearly thirty years old she came to Mrs. Deene to ask a "favah" of somewhat startling character.

"I want to ask jess one favah, Mis' Deene," she said. "DJs is de favah. If I do dies befo' you does I want de favah ob havin' you put a tombstone ovah my grave an' have on it, 'Rosabelle Jackson, only chile of Mistah an' Missus Abner Deene.'" — New York Post.

CONSERVATION A BIG PUZZLE

Adjoining States Have Exactly Opposite Views on Bill.

POLITICS IN DISCUSSION.

System of Leasing Is Supported and Opposed—Some Claim That It Will Deprive Poor Man of Privilege of Entering Mining Business and Allow Corporations to Make Money.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 5.—[Special.]—No people are more interested in the conservation question than those in the intermountain and semiarid states. To those people every feature of conservation is important because they must live with it. The people of the east can theorize and have a general policy of saving the resources for the future, but they are not directly interested as are the people residing in the states where the large areas of public lands are located.

And so it is on the leasing question. Colorado is diametrically opposed to Nevada, Montana differs sharply with Idaho, Utah does not agree with Nevada and Arizona. Just why Nevada and Montana should stand stanchly for the leasing system while Colorado and Idaho oppose it is one of the strange features of geography.

Politics might account for it if it were not for the fact that party lines are disregarded and Democrats and Republicans are found on different sides of this important question. No more earnest advocate of the system lives than Walsh of Montana, and no more vigorous opponent can be found than Shafroth of Colorado, both Democrats. Smoot is for the bill and Borah is against, both Republicans, and Utah and Idaho are joining states.

His Own Medicine.

Senator Kenyon of Iowa established his place as a filibusterer when he helped Burton kill the original river and harbor bill. Now Kenyon is trying to get a bill through to grant retired pay to the surviving officers of the Union army who held commissions during the civil war. And certain southern Democrats are taking great delight in opposing that measure and chiding Kenyon gently. They are not filibustering. Oh, no—they say so themselves! They are just discussing the measure and all other extraneous matters whither the debate may lead them.

At Home on Politics.

There has been no attempt on the part of quite a number of senators to conceal the fact that they are at home on political missions. Excuses for them on the floor of the senate were made on the ground that they were home in their campaigns.

Among those who were so named were Cummins of Iowa, Gallinger of New Hampshire, Gronna of North Dakota, Newlands of Nevada and Thomas of Colorado, while it was known that several senators have been absent solely on political missions. Among these are Brandegee of Connecticut, Brady of Idaho, Dillingham of Vermont, Gore of Oklahoma, Penrose of Pennsylvania, Sherman of Illinois, Shively of Indiana, Smith of South Carolina and Stone of Missouri. And no one seemed to question the right of these men to look after their political interests.

Grass Wanted.

Every man who comes from the west where cattle have been raised in the past says that cattle are decreasing, which accounts for the increased cost of meat. And this is because grass is diminishing. Grass means meat in the ultimate consideration, and unless our agricultural department can induce farmers to produce more grass there will be a continued falling off in the supply of cattle.

Good For Evil.

The senate was discussing a resolution providing for the payment of one of the so called "experts" who occasionally work a committee of congress. Senator Root favored making the payment, although the man to be paid was once an "expert" on Philippine questions and roundly abused and misrepresented Root's administration of the war department at that time. The New York senator bears no resentment and does not care much about newspaper criticism.

Campaign Material.

The war revenue special tax bill affords an opportunity to make a lot of campaign material and men in congress are making the most of it. In the senate there will be as much talk as the Republicans care to make, while the leave to print method affords the members of the house an opportunity to work off a lot of canned tariff speeches.

His Experiment.

An Irishman went into a hardware store to buy a looking glass. The shopman brought him some to choose from.

Pat left one on the counter and, walking back a few feet, closed his eyes.

"What are you closing your eyes for?" asked the shopkeeper.

On Time.

"Is this train running on time?" "I should say so," answered the conductor. "It can't run any other way. The company has had to get so many extensions of credit that the whole road is now running on time."—Washington Star.

Making Sure.

"I will show my love not by words, but by deeds."

"I think, dear, you had better show the deeds to our lawyer."—Baltimore American.

TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription—Try It if Your Eyes Give You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye troubles because they do not know what to do. They know some good home remedy for every other minor ailment, but none for their eye troubles. They neglect their eyes, because the trouble is not sufficient to drive them to an eye specialist, who would, anyway, charge them a heavy fee. As a last resort they go to an optician or to the five and ten-cent store, and often get glasses that they do not need, or which, after being used two or three months, do their eyes more injury than good. Here is a simple prescription that every one should use:

5 grains Optona (1 tablet). 2 ounces Water.

Use three or four times a day to bathe the eyes. This prescription and the simple Optona system keeps the eyes clean, sharpens the vision and quickly overcomes inflammation and irritation; weak, watery, overworked, tired eyes and other similar troubles are greatly benefited and often-times cured by its use. Many reports show that wearers of glasses have discarded them after a few weeks' use. It is good for the eyes and contains no ingredient which would injure the most sensitive eyes of an infant or the aged. Any druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it and know for once what real eye comfort is.

If you haven't already settled the hot question do so now.

CONSERVATION A BIG PUZZLE

Adjoining States Have Exactly Opposite Views on Bill.

POLITICS IN DISCUSSION.

System of Leasing Is Supported and Opposed—Some Claim That It Will Deprive Poor Man of Privilege of Entering Mining Business and Allow Corporations to Make Money.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 5.—(Special.)—No people are more interested in the conservation question than those in the intermountain and semiarid states. The people of the east can theorize and have a general policy of saving the resources for the future, but they are not directly interested as are the people residing in the states where the large areas of public lands are located.

And the strange thing about it is that the men representing those western states cannot agree among themselves as to what is the best policy. There has never been an irrigation proposition nor any other relating to the vast public land interests where it has not been found that different men from adjoining states disagree. The same is true in regard to the forest reservations.

Differ Over Leasing.

And so it is on the leasing question. Colorado is diametrically opposed to Nevada, Montana differs sharply with Idaho, Utah does not agree with New Mexico and Arizona. Just why Nevada and Montana should stand stanchly for the leasing system while Colorado and Idaho oppose it is one of the strange features of geography.

TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription—Try It if Your Eyes Give You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye troubles because they do not know what to do. They know some good home remedies for every other minor ailment, but none for their eye troubles. They neglect their eyes, because the trouble is not sufficient to drive them to an eye specialist, who would, anyway, charge them a heavy fee. As a last resort they go to an optician or to the five and ten-cent store, and oftentimes cure by its use. Many reports show that wearers of glasses have discarded them after a few weeks' use. It is good for the eyes and contains no ingredient which would injure the most sensitive eyes of an infant or the aged. Any druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it and know for once what real eye comfort is.

5 grains Optona (1 tablet).
2 ounces Water.

Use three or four times a day to bathe the eyes. This prescription and the simple Optona system keeps the eyes clean, sharpens the vision and quickly overcomes inflammation and irritation; weak, watery, overworked, tired eyes and other similar troubles are greatly benefited and oftentimes cured by its use. Many reports show that wearers of glasses have discarded them after a few weeks' use. It is good for the eyes and contains no ingredient which would injure the most sensitive eyes of an infant or the aged. Any druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it and know for once what real eye comfort is.

If you haven't already settled the hot question do so now.

THOUGH YOU ESCAPE

WITH YOUR LIFE

If fire occurs at your place, you will not find it sweet if the flames leave you penniless. All your remaining days will be filled with regret that you hadn't taken out insurance when you could. Fire is just as likely to happen to you as to anybody else. Be wise and have us insure you today. Then fire will not spell ruin for you.
